A REFRESHED UNDERPASS!

Previously neglected but heavily used Park Royal subway now transformed thanks to Lib Dem efforts

TRANSFORMATION: Persistence by the Lib Dems brings real change to our community.

Improved CCTV, new murals, and new lighting are just some of the improvements your Liberal Democrat Councillors have secured to brighten up the area and make pedestrians feel safe.

Lib Dem Councillors Jonathan Oxley, Mark Sanders and Athena Zissimos, along with the artist Andrew Werdna and Lib Dem London Assembly member Hina Bokhari attended the official unveiling last month.

Lib Dem Councillor Athena Zissimos was pivotal to get the project underway by spending the last two years finding the funding and pitching the idea to TfL and Old Oak Common and Park Royal Development Corporation (OPDC).

The new CCTV, murals and artwork by artist Andrew Werdna will hopefully act as a deterrent to anti-social behaviour as well as making the area more attractive.

Masons Green Lane: Lib Dems secure safety improvements

Local parents have been worried about the risks of collision between the children who attend the nearby Holy Family Catholic Primary School and the cyclists on Masons Green Lane for quite some time.

Thanks to local Lib Dem Councillor Athena Zissimos' efforts, new safety improvements are now implemented, including:

- Large painted warnings on the pathway to alert cyclists near the school entrance;
- Seven new thermoplastic rumble strips designed to make cyclists slow down;
- Additional signage on lampposts; and
- Vegetation cutback to improve visibility for cyclists.

HURRAH! Lib Dems make a difference to keep local children safe.

Lib Dems reject 'culture of failure' by calling-in Labour's £250 MILLION cleaning contract renewal

Lib Dem Councillors Jonathan Oxley and Mark Sanders have exposed and 'called-in' Ealing Labour's decision to extend the £250 MILLION cleaning and bin collection contract to Greener Ealing for another TEN years without allowing any competition or tendering process -even though our streets are dirty, and the leaves remain unswept.

A 'call-in' is an official review during the Overview and Scrutiny Committee meeting where decisions are reviewed.

Councillor Jonathan Oxley says, "Why is Labour obsessed with rewarding failure? The Lib Dems are demanding a open and transparent tendering process to allow competition to take place so we get value from our Council Tax."

FILTHY: Lib Dems argue that Ealing Labour is rewarding failure by giving Greener Ealing another TEN year contract.

Making things right: Lib Dem Councillor MARK SANDERS cleans up West Twyford with LAGER Can

Newly elected Councillor Mark Sanders is determined to take matters in his own hands by cleaning up our neighbourhood.

Mark regularly attends and cleans up bags of rubbish with local volunteers at the LAGER Can monthly Saturday clean up sessions at West Twyford.

Not only does Mark challenge Labour's record of street cleaning in the Council chamber, he is not afraid of getting his hands dirty to do his bit for the neighbourhood.

He is however, frustrated that the Council 'uses' volunteers as a substitute for something we have already paid for via Council Tax.
